Natural Waters
Alkaline.
Streams of Southern California Carry Groups of Mineral Ingredients

Perhaps you have noticed that most natural waters in Southern California are "hard" waters. They do not seem to quench the thirst, somehow—some of them are even slightly "brackish" to the taste.

Our City water is no exception to this and like others, the quality is due to the presence of considerable amounts of minerals in the water.

It is easy to see where these minerals come from. The streams flow through all the rocks and minerals. Some are dissolved in the water, and at the same time they reach the point of diversion where the water is taken for drinking purposes. It is impregnated with the thoroughly dissolved mineral matter.

No filter or other mechanical device will free water from any matter that is entirely dissolved in it. Such matter becomes a part of the water just as sugar or salt dissolved in water becomes a part of it.

distillation is the only pure, safe method of purifying water. Distillation, roughly speaking, is turning water into steam and condensing the steam into water again. Under great heat the water turns into steam, a gas. The alkaline and other impurities in the water are then deposited as solids in the boiler. The steam is the pure part of the water, and by condensing it absolutely pure

This generally pop-making, is our method of distilling Puritas distilled water. However, we find it necessary to distill it twice in order to secure an absolutely pure product.

After distillation, Puritas is aerated with pure ozone—secured by passing a current of electricity through filtered air. The pure, distilled, ozonated water is then bottled in clean glass demijohns. We even wrap the corks in foil in order that the outer air, filtering through a porous cork, may not contaminate the pure water within.

If you want pure, wholesome, healthful drinking water, order Puritas. It is just as essential to the family health as pure, wholesome food. It is most inexpensive to use. 5 gallons cost but 46c. delivered within the old city boundary lines. Outside that district the cost is a little more, owing to the long haul. Regular Puritas customers purchase Coupon Books, thereby securing the water at a discount. When you telephone, ask us about them. Home 1695. Sunset 800. 9191. Los Angeles Ice & Cold Storage Co.

OFF FOR BIG WEDDING.

Goulds Sail to Witness Maidstone-Drexel Nuptials—Dell in New York Weds' State Room.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW YORK, May 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. George J. Gould, her married daughter, Marjorie Drexel, and her son-in-law, Anthony Drexel, Jr., and her daughters, Vivian, Edith and Gloria, sailed for Europe, today, on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie. The party will attend the wedding of Lord Maidstone and Miss Drexel in London on June 3. After the wedding Mr. Gould and his family will start on a jaunt over the continent, traveling where their fancy leads them. They will not return to New York for three months. Mrs. Gould and her daughters will go to Paris and return to New York about August 1.

George J. Gould was at the ship to see his family safely off. Business kept him in New York. Besides Mr. Gould, a party of young people, social associates of Mrs. Drexel and her sisters, were out hand to witness the departure. A member of the party placed a life-sized doll in the stateroom of Mr. and Mrs. Drexel. While the bridal pair were being photographed, one of the Gould servants attempted to sneak the doll out of the Drexel stateroom into the Gould stateroom and inadvertently ran into the family group. The blushes of the bride and groom did not tend to subside the merriment of the young tormentors.

ROYAL RULES FOR MARRYING.

CHOOSING WIFE SERIOUS, SAYS DUC DE MONTPENSIER.

Brother of Queen of Portugal Declares Man Should Not Wed Until He's 35 and Has Seen World, But Girl Should Be Still in 'Teens and Innocent.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW YORK, May 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A man should not marry until he is past 35, and knows the world, a woman should marry in her teens, and know nothing of the world. This is one of the beliefs regarding marriage which His Royal Highness, the Duc de Montpensier, a young brother of the Duc de Orleans, pretender to the throne of France, brother of the Queen of Portugal and cousin of the King of Spain, who is visiting in New York, held and which he reiterated at some length and with considerable emphasis to an interviewer who received in his suite at the hotel Knickerbocker.

The Duke is 28, and when he was asked if he was looking for an American wife, he dispelled the notion with a slight show of indignation, and then went on to give his naïve and very un-American views on the business of choosing a partner for life.

"I shall not think of marrying for ten years at least," he said. "I am a Frenchman, as a rule, makes a business of wife hunting. He looks for a wife in very much the same way that he looks for a house—he wants one who will suit his needs and tastes. He might admire a Japanese pagoda or a Swiss chalet, but he would not care to live in either all his life."

"We meet many charming and amusing and clever girls—ma foi many indeed—but when we come to marry we think that she is to be with us always and to perpetuate our family line, and the charm and ability and dress and the amusing qualities are secondary considerations."

ENTHUSIASTIC.

LEGISLATURE GOES IN BODY.

LOUISIANA SOLONS WILL FIGHT FOR EXPOSITION.

Led by Governor and Mayor of New Orleans 165 Prominent Men of the State Start for Washington on Special Train to Urge Congress to Favor Crescent City.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW ORLEANS, May 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The entire State government, including Gov. Sanders, Lieut.-Gov. Lambreton, Speaker of the House H. Garland Dupe, President Pro Tem. of the Senate T. H. Barrett, together with 110 members of the State Legislature, Mayor Behrman of the city of New Orleans, and many other city officials, and a large crowd of prominent citizens, left here tonight on a special train of eleven Pullmans and two private cars, bound for their 110-mile journey to Washington, D. C., where they will endeavor to turn the tide against San Francisco and capture the Panama Exposition for New Orleans.

It was probably the most notable gathering of its kind ever leaving this State. The plan to load the entire Legislature on a special train and carry it to the national capital is itself a real novelty. They will appear before the House and Senate committees in the interest of selecting New Orleans the exposition site. A hearing has been arranged for Thursday, May 28.

In all 165 persons are aboard the special now on the road to Washington. The special left here at 8:30 o'clock tonight and will reach Washington early Thursday morning. They will leave there for the return Friday night.

Prior to departing from Baton Rouge today, the governor signed the bill which had just passed both houses of the Legislature providing for a special tax for raising $4,000,000 for the Panama Exposition. One million has been raised in this city by State subscription. With this legislation passed and signed, the Louisiana position will be squarely put up to Congress.

LIBERIAN TRIBES NOW QUIET.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The trouble in Liberia with the wild tribes seems at an end, for the present. A message from Minister Lyons at Monrovia received at the State Department says the chiefs of turbulent tribes on the coast have taken the oath of allegiance, and that those of the interior will do so during the present week. This, the Minister thinks, will put an end to the disturbances.

Gen. O'Malley has advised Superintendent of Banks Cheney that bonds for the city of Seattle, Wash., are legal investments for savings banks in New York State.

NATION'S DADS AT BALL GAME.

Most of Congress Follows the President to Park.

Prayers Bring Rain and Victory for Washington.

John Hays Hammond Stars
as a "Rooter."

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, May 24.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The Taft administration and the major portion of the Sixty-first Congress went to the ball game today. They brought a rainstorm and a victory for the local team in the sixth inning. When the President left, the crowd, standing in a drenching rain, called him "Lucky Bill," and cheered him more loudly than it did on his entrance during the second inning.

The crowd enjoyed its ball game today. Detroit made two runs against the Nationals' one. Then the clouds began to lower, and the fans prayed for rain. Gessler and Unglaub got them and the Nationals scored two. Then the crowd prayed for rain and the rain came.

During all of this playing and praying President Taft presided. He sat in his box, flanked by Cabinet officers, Senators, Representatives, army officers, fans, rooters, enthusiasts and peanut boys.

When the game began President Taft established a new fashion. He sauntered into his box wearing a new hat—a Taft fedora of pearl gray, and as nifty a hat as Washington can boast of at this writing.

PLUGS FOR TY.
Capt. Archie Butt sat beside him and Secretary MacVeagh took the third from the front seat. Capt. Butt told the President more than a million times that Ty Cobb comes from Augusta, Ga., and that Ty is the greatest ball player on earth and that Capt. Butt is also from Augusta, Ga., and that the President has a winter home there.

"It's a great game," murmured Secretary MacVeagh, as he looked at the score board.

Meanwhile, John Hays Hammond was doing a monologue. A verbal report proves that he is of the blood royal of fandom.

"Hit her out, George! That's the boy! Keep your eye on it! Get off there, Dolly! Whoa! Strike two! Rotten! Ball! That's right, George, make him put it over. Good eye, old man! Ball three. Go on, Dolly; go down with his arm! That's the eye, old man! Strike three! That's about the worst piece of umpiring I ever saw."

The clouds kept lowering and the President's fan-in-chief, Mr. Hammond, began to complain to the box what the rain might do to the team—the score was 2 to 1 in favor of Detroit and the fifth inning had been played. But just then the Nationals got busy and scored two runs.

At this juncture, and the rain fell in torrents. The umpire called it a game and the President scampered for a closed carriage.

Secretary MacVeagh huddled up in the box and said it was "a fine game," to a fan, while Assistant Secretary Hills tried to get him a carriage.

OFFICIAL LIST.
When Umpire Deneen called play today between the Nationals and the Tigers the following official faces were peering over the rails from the front row boxes: William Howard Taft, President; James Schoolcraft Sherman, Vice-President; Franklin McVeagh, Secretary of the Treasury; Frank Hitchcock, Postmaster-General; Assistant Secretary of the Treasury; Hills, Brig-Gen. Clarence Edwards, Chief of the Insular Bureau; Charles P. Taft, ex-candidate for Senator from Ohio; John Hays Hammond, chief volunteer aide to the President; Capt. Archibald W. Butt, regular aide; Senators Carter, Montana; Crane, Massachusetts; Sutherland, Utah; and Scott, West Virginia; Representatives Denby and Townsend, Michigan; Maitby, New York; Vreeland, New York; and sixty-four others; James Stutman of Indiana, Minister to Ecuador; clerks, secretaries, secret service men, bureau chiefs, army officers, navy officers, etc.

URGES GRADED LICENSES.
State Association of Stationary Engineers Opens Convention—Pleasure Will Be Sought Today.

Graded State licenses for stationary engineers was one of the chief topics discussed at the first session of the seventh annual convention of the State Association of Stationary Engineers. This was brought out strongly in the address of the president, J. N. Pyater. He advocated strict laws and licenses, saying that this meant the best protection to the profession and the general public which may be seriously endangered by incompetent engineers.

He also spoke on qualification for membership in the association. "Character of an applicant should be investigated as well as ability," he said. The educational work which is carried on by the association was dwelt upon. He made a plea for standardization of machinery, declaring that it would save considerable time and expense.

The first session opened in the banquet hall of the Angelus yesterday morning with seventy delegates present. The president appointed on the Credentials Committee H. D. Seville, W. P. Hudson and W. T. W. Curl. In the evening the delegates and many local engineers were present at the exhibit of machinery which is held on the fourth floor of the Hamburger building. There was a continual flow of visitors through this place throughout the afternoon and it is estimated that at least 500 people were present in the evening.

The business of the convention today will be suspended in favor of a trip around the "balloon route." At Redondo the plant of the Pacific Light and Power Company will be thrown open for inspection. A dinner will be served at Playa del Rey and stop made at Hollywood, Ocean Park and Venice. In the evening a theater party has been arranged.

Automobile rides are on the programme for the ladies tomorrow afternoon. The engineers will hold their second session. In the evening a dance will be given at the Goldberger-Bosley Assembly Hall.

RABBI RESIGNS.
CHICAGO, May 24.—Dr. J. L. Magness, one of the best-known rabbis in the country, resigned last night from the rabbinate of Temple Em Ansh because he is out of sympathy with the Jewish reform movement, as now directed by the leaders. His resignation was accepted.

RELIGIOUS. FRATERNITY SPREADS FAR.

"MOTHER J.O.C." TAKES UP WIDER WORK.

Mrs. Bryant Surrenders Initial Class Organization, After Phenomenal Success—Talented New Leader
for Young Women—Annual Conference
Next Month.

The annual conference of the "J.O.C." fraternity, which has heretofore been held during the month of May, will this year be held on June 24.

Mrs. Ada Bryant, "Mother J.O.C.," who called the first conference, in 1896, and who was at that time elected national president of the new organization, is yet at its head, and will probably remain so as long as she will permit. At the close of almost twelve years as teacher of the original "J.O.C." class in the First Methodist Sunday-school, Mrs. Bryant has retired from the active work, and will devote more of her time to the affairs of the fraternity throughout the United States.

She took charge of the class of girls which had been organized under the "J.O.C." title, when it had nineteen members, and such has been the growth that during the past couple of years the membership has fluctuated between 200 and 250. This is the original class, and it is the mother of many others, which have been organized by girls who have realized its benefits while sojourning in Los Angeles and have gone out to other communities and States and introduced the "J.O.C." organization.

There is little doubt that this class will remain in the lead, and continue to be an inspiration to all others, under the new leadership of Mrs. L. H. Le Fetra, who has just returned from Chili, where she has been connected with a girls' school. She is a cultured woman of wide experience, and will probably be able to maintain the important place of the class in the Sunday-school, which now second largest in the United States, but Mrs. Bryant has set a rapid pace for her to follow.

When Mrs. Bryant accepted the suggestion that a conference be organized, four years ago, there were then, so far as she knew, but eighteen "J.O.C." organizations, in six different States. Last year there were between fifty and sixty, in thirteen different States. At the present time there are about 100 organizations, in perhaps twenty States. As the first class organized outside of Mrs. Bryant's was in 1902, in the First Methodist Church of Pasadena, it looks as if the prediction she made was to be realized, that it would equal Christian Endeavor, reach every State in the Union in twelve years, or by 1914. It is now represented by classes of girls in probably every evangelical denomination, and a few boys have had the temerity to break into it. They will get lonely and drop out, but the organization of "Baraca Girls" would be just as appropriate.

When the first conference was held four years ago, Mrs. Bryant was recognized by the First Methodist Church, in which it started, though it had not sheltered all denominational ties, and an address of welcome was delivered to the delegates by Dr. H. W. Brodbeck, superintendent of the Sunday-school, and by Dr. Robert McIntyre, pastor of the church, now Bishop McIntyre. The growth has been phenomenal when it is considered that no organized effort has been made to spread it, and no provision is made for any such effort. One girl just says to the other:

"Let's call it J.O.C."

They agree, write to Mrs. Bryant and get the "dope," and that is all there is to it. So it goes from church to church, from city to city and from State to State. Much interest is being manifested in the coming conference on June 24, when an effort will be made to have a report from every known class organized under the name.

YOUNG SNELL TRIES TO ATONE.

Millionaire's Son Practices Self-Sacrifice to Make Up for Rotten Career in Youth.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)
CHICAGO, May 24.—At the Coroner's inquest last night over the body of Albert J. Snell, son of Amos J. Snell, the Chicago millionaire, murdered twenty-two years ago under sensational circumstances, there was brought to light the strange career of a man who spent his youth in prodigal living and his middle age in stonemason, self-sacrifice and unostentatious evangelical work. For seven months previous to his death he lived in a cheap lodging house.

While he was receiving a monthly income of $200 from his father's estate, he paid $1.50 a week for his room, worked every day at a meager salary and sent all the income from the estate to his wife and children from whom he lived apart.

The man who had "burned up a fortune" in his youth and had been owned by his family because of his riotous living, spent the last years of his life in self-abnegation and hard work.

According to Mrs. Adams, who kept the lodging house, where he died, Snell led a small guard of five to ten men from the lodging house every Sunday morning to church. When he returned he would distribute programmes from the church in the lodging house and tell the other roomers the text and substance of the sermon.

Makes Good Showing

Increases Assets 496 Times in Twenty Seven Months, a Record of Growth
to be Very Proud
Of.

"The Los Angeles Financier of May 21st, in commenting upon the financial statement of 'Home Builders' for its ninth quarter, says:—'Home Builders' has issued its quarterly statement in which it shows that in twenty-seven months its assets have grown to $620,937.26, or nearly five hundred times more than they were at the beginning. This is an excellent exhibit for a little more than two years, and is another evidence of our remarkable record in building activity.'

This is a record to be proud of, and every one of the nearly fifteen hundred shareholders in this great co-operative building enterprise are jubilant. They are happier, perhaps, over the cash-in-hand dividends their concern pays them every three months, and likewise, they rejoice over the steady advance in the price of shares which month by month makes their holdings very much more valuable.

The financial statement above referred to by the Financier also shows a surplus and undivided profits amounting to over $155,000.00. This surplus in which each share of stock has pro-rata interest, is why 'Home Builders' stock is worth $1.85 per share, and why this enterprise is going to raise its price to $1.90 next Wednesday, June 1st.

'Home Builders' Office at 129 South Broadway—the Ground Floor Mason Opera House Bldg., is growing all too small for it with the increase of business of the enterprise.

You can look for a stream of shareholders thereabouts on and after June 1st for a few days on account of the distribution of the ninth quarterly dividend checks which will be distributed at that time.

'Home Builders' is certainly an enterprise of which Los Angeles may well be proud.

IN THE DARK: HALF-AND-HALF, OR ONE-THIRD?

ORNAMENTAL LIGHTING COST
HAS COUNCIL GUESSING.

Many Streets Besieging City for Help in Installing Famous Electrical System, and Question Hinges on How Far the Municipality May Go With Its Money.

The Los Angeles system of ornamental street lighting, now copied so widely in other cities, is making ready to spread over various parts of the municipality of its origin. The Council is besieged with petitions for the creation of lighting districts on many streets, and involved in them all is the question of how much the city government will contribute to the ornate illumination.

Four streets, Broadway, Main, Spring and Hill, have been lighted for years on the basis of the city paying half the cost—that is, the city pays for the lighting every other year, which is the same thing. Recently, Fifth street was lighted in the same manner, and by the use of tungsten lamps, has been first prize in the contest of street resplendency. It is now proposed to change the four principal streets to tungsten burners.

Pico street has paid in its money for lighting from Main street to Vermont avenue, and now Seventh street has put in a petition to light it from east to west to a distance of four and one-quarter miles.

Property owners on First, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh streets are ready to go ahead if the city will bear its share, and the extension of the system to North Broadway (formerly Downey avenue), Temple street, Wilshire boulevard and others is making progress.

If the city commits itself to the policy of paying one-half in each instance, the Council already sees an unusually heavy charge on the treasury. The argument in favor of this generosity for the four principal streets is that they were ornamented with this tacit agreement on the part of the city, and that, as these streets are used by the whole city, the general taxes should pay for at least half the lighting.

But Pico and Seventh street are asking the Council why they should be required to pay the entire cost of their own lighting and then furnish tax money to help light the other streets. The same question is being propounded by advocates of other extensions.

"Treat all alike" is the slogan. Yesterday the Council, sitting as a committee of the whole, discussed the subject with fifty interested property owners. F. W. Blanchard spoke for Broadway, Joseph Meemer for Main street and Gilbert S. Wright for Hill street. Each urged the maintenance of the present half-and-half system.

So did James Hanley, who represented East First street property owners and some Seventh street owners agreed that this was fair. But Pico-street owners, through P. W. Powers and S. G. Marchette, said they would be satisfied if the city bore one-third of the cost.

The discussion yesterday began to alter itself into a fight of all the other districts against the downtown ones, for it seemed that the city is not financially able to pay half on an unlimited quantity of extensions.

Councilmen Andrews and Gregory, while disagreeing as to the amount the city should pay, agreed that it should be uniform in all cases.

City Electrician Manahan reported that the city's lighting bill for the year just about to end was $200,000, including about $20,000 paid for ornamental lighting. He says next year the city will have $200,000, and which it will pay over $240,000, and that the extensions proposed, including all the downtown streets, Pico and Wilshire, will lift the amount to $280,000, if the half-and-half policy is adopted. If the one-third basis is adopted it will cost the city about $271,000.

After discussing it two hours, the Council adjourned as a committee, with the understanding that each member will have his choice made between the half-and-half and one-third policies by next Tuesday.

Make a Specialty of Men's and Young Men's Suits and Overcoats at $20 and $25

We especially succeed in fitting hard-to-fit-men in these two grades.

IN ALL PROBABILITY WE SELL MORE suits and overcoats at these two prices than any other shop this side of Chicago; included in these lines are the elegant creations of at least ten of the world's best makers; among the fabrics are worsteds, cassimeres, tweeds and vicunas in many shades of gray and brown; also plain and fancy blues in one, two and three-button models. To duplicate these suits, we figure, the ordinary clothes shop or small clothing store must ask you to pay at least a fourth more than our prices.

Great Array of Finest Suits

You'll profit by a look at the fine suits we're showing in the new fancy weaves; late May arrivals in tans, grays, brown; finest English worsteds; fine American weaves; the choicest products of the weaver's and tailor's arts, $30, $35, $40 and $50.

New Ideas in Young Men's Clothes

Nobody knows better than we do the special needs and wishes of the college and high school young fellows in clothes. In Japan.

any other people. This is very enlightening. It broadens one's view. It extends one's knowledge of human nature under varying phases. To play poker with a man all the way across the ocean gives one a profound knowledge of the Japanese character. To sit in a hotel parlor—a replica of the parlor of the American house in white oak, Iowa, and play bridge with the same women every night for a week, enables one to write a book on the "Manners and Customs of the Manchurians." In the intervals of playing more bridge with the same women when one returns home.

There were two men whom we met somewhere on the way—old friends of forty years' standing, who were leisurely touring the world together. I said to Mrs. Burdette:

"Well, I'd have to love a man mighty well to go around the world with him."

And my lady looked at me thoughtfully, a long, long time, and then said:

"So would I!"

And I sat still and thought, and thought, and thought. Then we went out and watched the second-class passengers, who were really worth knowing, going ashore in the sampans.

The sampan is a boat. It is hollow, and it floats like celluloid in white water. It would think it would be a safe thing for the children to play with in the lake in Eastlake Park. Then you meet it, some stormy day, 200 miles out at sea, getting along about as well as the big liner over whose state-side you are feeding the dolphins with the dinner for which you had but a very temporary and a most unpleasant use, and you change what mind you have left concerning the sufficiency of the sampan.

The first one I ever saw was in our own United States. It was in the harbor of Honolulu. It was anchored, in all its crudity and clumsiness near a yacht, a dream of grace in white and gold. I mused, in true American fashion, over the two types of ship building, a reflection upon the goodness of the Ruler of the destinies of men, who in His inscrutable providence had given to the Americans all the wisdom and all the cleverness and most of the money in the world, and had bestowed upon the poor Japanese only sufficient saw-and-hatchet ability in naval architecture to build a sampan. Presently the yacht weighed her little watch-charm anchor, fired her little gun, and, bright as the gold dust of Honolulu harbor, like a meat-bound that had just glimpsed the neighbor's cat, shortly after passing the yacht, it disappeared over the rim of the Pacific Ocean. I still gazed after the yacht, but my thoughts, which had been breeding steadily sou-sou-east, hauled around to north by west, freshening to about "art a gale."

How the Neptune was I to know that lobster of a sampan had a steersman, a power gasoline engine concealed in its sneezing innards?

Not all of them have only those high-powered sampans whose business occasionally requires them to run right straight away from the stately and excellent naval monitor, the U. S. revenue cutter Thetis, as handsome as her "silver-footed" namesake.

Ordinarily the motor of the sampan consists of an oar, an oar and a half,

two, or four oars, according to the pretensions of the boat. For it sure is a boat. The single-oar is trailed aft, at the southeast corner of the boat. And if there is any thing clummiest to behold than the oar of a sampan, it is a bridegroom trying to look unconscious of the eyes of the congregation, when not a soul in the church, except for the express purpose of splicing it more awkwardly than it could be originally made, is never used for rowing. Always for sculling. A Venetian gondolier is not more expert than the little brown man who manipulates that fractured oar with the crooked setting. It is at once propeller and rudder. If there are two oars, the second one trails from the northwest corner. When there are four, they are mustered aft, close together as may be. The boat is broadest at the stern. Thence it runs steadily and curvilinearly to a point, in the geometrical sense of the term. It looks like a horizontal exclamation point that has lost its dot. But they all do that. They converge like the centering spokes of a wheel. Their long thin snouts poke into the hub of that great maritime wheel, nosing in like a Jersey snake-boat winding through a tangle of reeds. It is a semi-circle of boats, No other craft could form such a figure. Nobody falls overboard. No baggage is lost in the briny. The shrieks of the timid are drowned in the typhoon of clamor and jargon that chatters and yells its babel to the waves. The duty of the bow sampan, the man with the boat hook, is to about all the time, as fast as he can, at the top of his voice, with full steam ahead on his lungs, about something you cannot comprehend in a language you do not understand. And he attends to his duty with a blameless conscience. You may say of him when his voice is silent, that "having saw his duty, he done it noble and he done it cheerful."

Now you see why the oars of the sampan are rigged aft—away aft, out of the way. And the oarsman keeps up a reciprocal oscillation of that crooked oar with the malpractice surgery, that steadies his boat with a wriggle that the fishes vainly strive to imitate.

The Japanese sampan is a gentleman and a sculler.

Concerning the character of the Japanese people, I reckon I'll wait till I get ashore before I talk about them. Then I'll be less at sea than I am now.

VIOLINS ARE SAFE.

Collector Brings His Valuable Instruments to This City as Carefully as Though Babies.

F. Vanderveken and his collection of violins were safely deposited in Los Angeles yesterday, after a trip across the continent from Scranton, Pa., where the violinist has established an American home.

Mr. Vanderveken thought very little of his own safe arrival, but he was nervous about the safety of his violins, those musical sounding boxes which he values so very highly. He has nearly thirty of them on his present trip, all packed in time cases, some of them covered in layer after layer of cloth to keep the temperature at a proper degree while they are not being played.

Among the violins was one of the famous French make, which at one time belonged to the famous French composer, Vinteuille, and which Vanderveken has several times refused $5000 for. Then he has two Amatis which are worth $3000 each. An Andre Guerinarius worth $2500, a Go-bett, several Goffuilers and a Gagliano are also among the collection.

The virtuoso is a concert player, but that is not his reason for being here. He has been engaged to give several lectures to come of the leading violin teachers and their pupils.

"I am merely a teacher for the teachers," he said, speaking of his visit. "I explain to them the beauty of the violin, its playing, and speak of the famous masters."

The home of Vanderveken is in Brussels. This is his fifty-seventh visit to America.

Lecturer for Harriman System Will Give Illustrated Talk Here and Take Some Pictures.

Although not generally known, the Harriman system maintains a lecture bureau, with a corps of efficient lecturers constantly in the field, to exploit every section of the country reached by this great system of railroads. By means of beautifully colored views and motion pictures the lecturers delight and entertain many large audiences in the States remote from the several lines, and in Europe, and at the same time afford their hearers a more comprehensive idea of the products, industries and attractive features of those sections.

James W. Erwin, of San Francisco, has been engaged in this work of exploitation for several years. Accompanied by two photographers, Erwin is now making a tour of the entire Harriman system, for the purpose of gathering new material for lectures in the shape of pictures, both still and animated.

Erwin will give one of his lectures in this city on the evening of May 27, under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. at their building on Hope street and a cordial invitation is extended to all adults who may be interested, to be present.

Several days will be spent in Los Angeles and vicinity, getting pictures and material for his lectures in the East and across the Atlantic. Mr. Erwin will lecture in Los Angeles on "The Golden West," with animated and still life pictures of scenes in Yellowstone Park, Washington, Oregon, Northern California, Yosemite Valley, and new views in Southern California.

Every bottle of the Italian-Swiss Colony's Tio (red or white) is guaranteed to be absolutely pure. Order it from your grocer.—(Adv.)

HATRED FOR FATHER VISITED ON CHILD?

At Bedside of Dying Mother, Wealthy Ex-Jockey Curses and Threatens to Kill Adopted Sister, and Is Taken to Jail.

Jockey Ransh and His Adopted Sister, Kissie.

He is in the City Jail charged with having threatened to kill the girl, who is only six years old, because his dying mother wants to leave property to the child, who is the daughter of an enemy.

HATRED centered on his 6-year-old adopted sister, Kissie, who was the daughter of a brother-in-law,
with whom he had a feud, led Jay Ransh, a world-renowned jockey, bookmaker, plunger and speculator, to the City Jail yesterday afternoon, where he was locked up. He had made threats to brain or cut the throat of the child, on whom his mother centered her affections.

The quarrel occurred at the Marlboro Hotel, No. 551 South Grand avenue, where Ransh's mother, Mrs.
E. Scholl, who married a second time, lives with her adopted daughter, Kis-
sie. The mother is dying of quick consumption, and wishes to leave a little property to the 6-year-old girl. She has a lease on the hotel in which she lives, owns real estate near Bakers-field, and has a small sum of money in bank. This she plans to leave to the child.

Mrs. Scholl says her son is worth between $100,000 and $200,000, but refused to help little Kissie, who will need the money more than her wealthy and bitter brother.

The ex-jockey has frequently flourished a revolver while talking to his mother, she says, and has "cursed the day little Kissie was born." His rage became ungovernable yesterday when he learned of his mother's success in securing money and property to will to the child and swore he would brain the little one or cut her throat.

As he rushed out of the hotel, Detective Ingram, who had been summoned, seized him and took a revolver from him. He was locked up in the City Jail, charged with carrying concealed weapons. A few minutes later he was arraigned before Judge arranged for his release, when an official complaint of threats to kill was issued by the District Attorney's office and served by a detective, who,
with Deputy Dist. Atty. Veitch had collected sufficient evidence to warrant the filing of such a charge. He is held in jail pending his hearing this morning before Justice Rose.

MANY WINNING MOMENTS.
Ransh holds the world's record for the number of races won by a jockey in one year. In twelve months of 1902-1903 he rode the winning horse in 72 races. This feat was accomplished in America before he "became too cunning," and left for Europe with a cloud hanging over him. He holds the unrivaled record of having won the Prix Du Conseil Municipal at Paris, France, three consecutive times—once while carrying the colors of William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., again for Count D.
De Saint Phalle, and the last time for Montgolfier Andre. Each of these prizes carried a purse of about $20,000, and of the profits the winning jockey is given 10 per cent. In each race Ransh bet heavily on himself and cleaned up more than $100,000 from European sports.

In his racing abroad the American jockey discomfited the President of France on several occasions and hurt
the pride of the King of England.
These dignitaries had horses entered in races won by a mount ridden by Ransh. Noblemen sought him for racing advice and "tips" and he was without a peer in his line.

He says that during his career he has not amassed the fortune his mother believes he has, and that his holdings in real estate in this country are largely of uncertain value. His mother says he is now running strings of horses on different race tracks in this country, conducts bookmaking enterprises and heads a syndicate of wild ex-jockeys who have many ways of getting money from the sporting public. While Ransh claims he has given his mother $24,000 since 1900, she asserts that his contributions have fallen far short of this sum.

AN AUDIENCE OF ONE.

Good Government "Mass Meeting" Brings Out Four Speakers and One Listener.

The bottom dropped completely out of the Goo-Goo campaign for City Councilmen last night, and Messrs.
Stewart and Whitten were left at the hall at No. 2219 North Broadway sucking their thumbs for relief.

According to the Goo-Goo programme there was to have been one of their great and glorious mass-meetings at the place indicated, and addresses by Messrs. Whitten and Stewart and two aspirants for justice of the peace were scheduled.

When the faithful hour arrived the janitor opened the hall, the four candidates referred to were on hand, there was just one man present to comprise the audience, and a verification clerk was in attendance because he had been led to believe that there would be a chance to get a large number of signatures to Goo-Goo petitions. He was buncoed.

When the janitor entered the hall and scolded the audience to two, one of the candidates said he might just as well "make a little talk." Upon this announcement, the original half of the audience arose, but the janitor beat him to the door. Then the audience, arising as one man, went out to get a drink, and "one of the most enthusiastic rallies of the campaign" was a thing of the past.

"PIG" SQUEAKS.
RURAL JUSTICE
SELLS LIQUOR.

OFFICERS BUY GALLON BEFORE
ARRESTING HIM.

Elizabeth Lake Township Official Escapes Necessity of Fining Himself, But Furnishes One Hundred Dollars Bail After Offering Twobits for Return of Jug.

On the eve of exercising his judicial learning upon an important preliminary examination, Justice Munz of Elizabeth Lake Township, was arrested yesterday on a charge of selling liquor without a license. The arrest, which was made by detectives of the Dist. Atty. Frederick's, is without a precedent in the legal annals of the county. Munz could not believe the arrest was made in earnest until Detective Browne handed the jurist a copy of the warrant.

In the excitement of the moment,
Munz did not notice that the summons read, "and forthwith be taken before the nearest magistrate." As he was the "nearest magistrate," Munz might have been under the painful necessity of heavily fining himself.

Browne was thoughtful enough to get around this dilemma. He made Munz give him $10 in gold as cash bail, and told him to appear in the Pasadena Justice Court today.

The officers drove up to Munz's place in an automobile. All seemed jolly good fellows. They ordered a gallon of wine. It is alleged Munz brought the jug to the auto and received the money for it. It is further stated that the vendor said he would give "two bits" for the return of the jug.

COULDN'T RETURN JUG.
"Very sorry not to be able to do so,"
said Browne with grim humor, "but that wine will be an exhibit in the case of the people against one J. Munz.
You are now under arrest on a charge of violating the law regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors."

The officers say Munz has a combination store, dance hall, courtroom and blind pig. They alleged a large quantity of wine and spirits was found in the basement. This was confiscated.
Munz has no permit for selling intoxicants.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Keetch received a letter yesterday morning from the jurist in regard to a case of lawless which was to have been heard before him. Instead of arguing law points before His Honor, Keetch will be under the necessity of prosecuting the general occupant of the rural bench,
unless Munz concludes to plead guilty.

The arrest was the most specu-lar incident of the "clean-up" of the northern section of this county. Capt.
Frederick received word several days ago that "blind piggers" were again getting active in that part of the county. He dictated one of his characteristic missives to his chief of detectives.
It read: "Go to it."

GET OTHER PRISONERS.
Browne hastily gathered his band.
It included Detectives Campbell and Maehl and Constables Cochran and Austin, the latter a Pasadena officer.
They left Los Angeles early day before yesterday. After arresting Munz, they went on to Fairmont. There they took George Papp, alleged keeper of an illicit winery, into custody. Next
"Jane Doe" Armstrong of Neenach was arrested. Paul and the Armstrong woman are said to be the employer of John Corl, owner of a vineyard.
This morning J. Brant, who is reputed to have a winery in Plum Canyon, near Saugus, will be taken into custody.

Browne stated that he would carry out the District Attorney's orders to the letter, and arrest every person in the county who is believed to be selling intoxicants without a license. It is said that there have been sales of liquor to aqueduct employees in cam-pae Nos. 2, 3 and 4. The county officials will cooperate with the Aqueduct Commission in putting a stop to illegal liquor-selling. Browne said this county is at present remarkably free from "blind pigs," but that a new crop of road-house and winery proprietors springs up frequently.

FOOD LAW VIOLATIONS.
Complaints Are Prepared Against Score of Merchants—Cheap Restaurants Sell Ripe Chickens.

Deputy Dist. Atty. McCartney is preparing more than a score of complaints against merchants who are alleged to have violated the pure food laws.

The greatest violation is by the proprietors of cheap restaurants who serve well-ripened cold storage chickens at reduced rates. They neglect to print on their bills the fact that the fowl have not been freshly killed.

Lesson extract with only a trace of lemon oil in it, has been confiscated in several places. Tar coloring is also used with no mention of it as one of the ingredients being made on the label. The inspectors have also found benzoates in the pickles and catsup.

Cheap allspice has been found to contain a great quantity of ground stems and some merchants are selling short weight butter.

WOMAN JOLTS REFORM BOSS.

Witness in Damage Suit Has Her Innings.

Marshall Stimson's Client
Was Not Arrested.

Case of Personal Presence of Politician.

The woman who sent a shudder through the ranks of the Link-Busters by bringing a fraud suit against Marshall Stimson, yesterday was at the witness stand.

She appeared as plaintiff in a damage suit against Stimson's client,
Charles Ser Via, her brother-in-law.
It was a bad day for Charles when they quarreled over the possession of legal documents. She swears that he forcibly entered her room and in the night, she suffered what only a woman in a delicate condition can undergo.

A sympathetic woman friend rushed to her rescue and in the second tiff, the woman friend suffered a similar misfortune.

So far only one of the women has brought suit against Ser Via. It was her suit that came to trial before a jury yesterday in Judge James's court.
The case was a sort of bi-product of the other case which concerned the charges against the banner bearer of reform.

The charges against Stimson came out of a family row between Charles and William Ser Via, brothers. Stimson represented Charles Ser Via. His reputation was attacked by William and William's wife.

In furtherance of the row, Stimson's client, Charles Ser Via, is alleged to have burst into his sister-in-law's room; to have broken open her trunk, intending to seize certain papers. In defending the case, Stimson said:

STIMSON'S REVENGE.
Stimson had his revenge yesterday
when she went on the witness stand.
Mrs. Ser Via, the plaintiff, is a sienthal Stimson, had her day in court yesterday.

She appeared as plaintiff in a damage suit against Stimson's client,

THE PUBLIC SERVICE In the Courts and Offices.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Council yesterday concurred in water rates for the San Pedro Water Company by which the people of the harbor region will have to pay more.

A. F. Johns and the Big Sepe Oil Company were made defendants in a $100,000 damage action in the Superior Court yesterday.

The Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company brought suit in the Superior Court against the city of Los Angeles for the recovery of $21,854.80, alleged to have been illegally paid as taxes.

Margie Virginia Grant was acquitted of the charge of securing money under false pretenses, in Judge Willis's court yesterday on motion of the District Attorney, in connection with a rooming-house deal.

Judge Willis reversed the appeal case from the court of the Pomona recorder, involving a violation of the winery ordinance. It was held that an error had been improperly appointed to serve the jury panel.

AT THE CITY HALL.

RATES "FIXED" FOR SAN PEDRO.

LISNER BOARD GIVES WATER COMPANY INCREASE.

Council Confirms the Rate Reported After the Company's Attorney Admits That Charges on Consumers Will Be Higher—Bouquets for All Consigned Passed Around.

Water rates for San Pedro, Wilmington, and Terminal Island were "fixed" by the Lisner Board of Public Utilities and the Council yesterday. The schedule "guessed" by Lisner and reported Monday was applied to present conditions by the San Pedro company and, according to the statement of its attorney, H. J. Goudge, provides a "substantial increase" in revenue for the company to be paid, of course, by these San Pedro water users. The "substantial increase" was not stated but it is understood to be several thousand dollars a year.

After this increase had been handed to the San Pedro company at the expense of the recently annexed territory, Goudge solicited the Council and the Lisner Board on its fairness to the water company, then President Lisner explained that he did not know how the Council would ever have been able to fix rates without Lisner and his board and then Lisner complimented the Council and reminded it that the Board had been working without compensation and was trying to do the best for all concerned. He also said the error alluded to in yesterday's Times was due to figures furnished by the company which it had to stultify by its own witnesses to produce the real facts.

"Uncle Jerry" Andrews followed with compliments to Goudge for his "fairness" to the Council.

Everybody seemed happy, especially the San Pedro Water Company, with its "substantial increase" for which it had not asked until Lisner's Board got busy. Perhaps the "substantial increase" is one of the benefits of consolidation, in the opinion of the Good Government crowd.

The San Pedro rates, as finally fixed, are those of the Los Angeles water department, with the following exceptions:

For every tenement or building of one or two rooms occupied by a single person, not including water for sprinkling, 50 cents per month.

Flat rates of the city ordinance are changed for San Pedro, Wilmington and Terminal Island, as follows:

For every tenement or dwelling house of three rooms, occupied by a single family, 75 cents per month; four rooms, occupied by a single family, 85 cents; five rooms, occupied by a single family, $1.10; six rooms, occupied by a single family, $1.25; seven rooms, occupied by a single family, $1.40.

"Eight rooms, occupied by a single family, $1.55; nine rooms, occupied by a single family, $1.70; ten rooms, occupied by a single family, $1.85.

"For sprinkling lawns and gardens or hose use of any kind, for lots not exceeding 150 feet deep, per front foot, 1 cent. (The Los Angeles rate is nine-tenths of 1 cent.)

"For each storehouse, warehouse, butcher shop, confectionery shop, hall, printing office, market, bookbindery, blacksmith shop and for other places of business not mentioned, not including water closets or urinals, $1.

"Other than the foregoing changes in rates from the Los Angeles schedule, and additions thereto, the flat rate classification and rates of said Los Angeles schedule to be paid and be in force within this territory."

Rate fixing will go on this afternoon when the Board of Public Utilities will make its recommendations on electric light and power. Lisner called the Council members about him yesterday and told them that they should meet at 1:30 o'clock and determine when to hear the companies affected. The Council followed his instructions.

The board was cloaked with its attorney, John W. Williams, and yesterday, working out his recommendations. It is understood the famous "gentlemen's agreement" which held the rate of 3 cents impregnable for the past three years is to be forgotten and that a reduction will be recommended. Last year there was an attempt to reduce the rate to 8 cents, and Wallace and Pense repudiated the "gentlemen's agreement" but they stood alone. The reduction was then urged on the showing of Auditor Muesel that the light consumers were paying seventeen times as much for current as the big power consumers.

Thursday is understood to be the day when the telephone rates will be reported. There is no intimation as to what they will be, as the chief interest seems to be in the light rates. Last year the Council, aided by Wallace's vote, increased the rates of the Home Telephone Company from $2 to $3. The ordinance was made the subject of a referendum appeal and defeated at the general election.

The Council must complete its rate fixing this week, as the rate ordinance must be published not later than May 31 to have them effective by July 1. Usually rates are fixed in March, but there was unusual delay this year to accommodate Lisner's board, which pleaded insufficient time to investigate since the first of the year.

ENDS ITS WORK.

CONSOLIDATION COMMITTEE.

The Los Angeles Consolidation Committee, which had charge of the campaign for the unification of the greater city with the harbor regions last summer, made its final report to the Council yesterday and was discharged with thanks.

The committee was composed of Stoddard Jess, Chairman, Joseph Scott,

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

GUN MEN HOLD DOWN CLAIMS.

TROUBLE IN MOUNTAINS GETS INTO COURTS.

Suit Filed for Damages of One Hundred Thousand Dollars Against Big Sepe Oil Company—Fighting for Control of Rich Oil-Bearing Territory in Ventura.

A. F. Johns and the Big Sepe Oil Company are again in the judicial limelight. This time as defendants in a $100,000 damage action. Recently Judge James granted ten days' traveling the tangled affairs of the corporation and Johns, in relation to certain stock transactions; now the alleged owners of mining land in the Big Sepe district are the plaintiffs in an action that promises to become important in local oil litigation.

The plaintiffs in the case are Charles A. Brown, William R. Ryan, John Murphy, and a half dozen others, who allege that they own about 100 acres of mining land in the territory occupied by the Big Sepe Oil Company. They claim that the company is trying to raise money for the purpose of developing the territory, exploiting the land for mining purposes, etc.

STOP ACTION.

THACK PAVING MEASURES.

Postponement of the two ordinances requiring the grading and paving of all future street railway work and the new system of substructure urged by the City Engineer, resulted in a delay when Joseph Scott, president of the Chamber of Commerce and H. W. Frank, representing Merchants and Manufacturers Association, appeared before the Council to ask time to investigate the innovations.

Scott said the attention of the Chamber had been called to one effect of the measures that of interrupting traffic and such an effect would result in might work injury to merchants.

Frank said the merchants had a warm feeling for the street railway company, but that any system of construction that might be business up in any corner for long time must be avoided if possible.

Councilman Gregory, in moving an extension, declared the Council had fully investigated the subject and that the talk of interrupting traffic and injuring business was "nonsense."

That Unsanitary Garbage.

There is no place in Los Angeles where a sanitary transfer of garbage may be made, according to a communication sent to the Council yesterday by Health Officer Powers. This was in response to the request of the Council that he make a report on what transfers could be made from wagons to cars if the present site at Anderson and Aliso streets is impossible.

Who Said Speed Limit?

The speed at which street cars may run through the city was not fixed by ordinance yesterday because the Council, which dealt with it through a committee several weeks ago, forgot to take up the matter.

Fire Protection in a Hurry.

The Wilshire district has asked the Council for adoption of a petition for a fire hydrant. The petition is signed by W. D. Longley, Irving H. Helman and J. L. Van Norman. It says this section is the center of high-class building activity, and that the necessity for fire protection is increasing daily. The petitioners admit that a contract has been made for fire hydrants and that an engine house is coming, but they urge haste because of the present danger.

More "General Circulation."

Bids are received yesterday by the Council for the city advertising for the coming fiscal year. Recently the contract was awarded to the Los Angeles News, but the Superior Court doubted its "general circulation," so new bids were asked. The San Pedro News bid 15 cents an inch yesterday and the Los Angeles Journal, which now has the contract, bid 15 cents. The bids were referred to the Supply Committee.

The plaintiffs in the case are Charles A. Brown, William R. Ryan, John Murphy, and a half dozen others, who allege that they own about 100 acres of mining land in the territory occupied by the Big Sepe Oil Company. They claim that the company is trying to raise money for the purpose of developing the territory, exploiting the land for mining purposes, etc.

STOCKHOLDERS' WOE.

SAYS HOLDINGS WORTHLESS.

An action was brought in the Superior Court yesterday by Adelbert A. Warren and Myra Warren against John C. Hamilton, W. B. Sturdivant, E. H. Diers, Victor March, C. M. Smith, and others, to recover $3000 alleged to be due on account of a stock deal, with a recision of a contract in the holding.

It is set out in the complaint that on May 25, 1909, an agreement was made by the terms of which the Warrens were to purchase 250 shares of the Belle of Arizona Mining Company at 25 cents a share, and within five months the corporation was to buy back 6000 shares, for which $2000 in cash was to be paid. Under this arrangement the Warrens paid over the price agreed upon for the 2500 shares.

Now the plaintiffs allege that the stock is worthless; that the company is not authorized to do business at all in California on account of non-compliance with the law relating to foreign corporations. The Warrens made in connection with the value of the stock were false and misleading, and finally that the defendants, who represented themselves as officers and directors of the Belle of Arizona Mining Company, did not hold such positions at all.

The prayer of the petition is not only that the money set out be recovered, but that the court declare that the defendants were not the duty elected and qualified directors and officers of the Belle of Arizona Mining Company, and that the contract be rescinded.

MRS. GRANT FREE.

HER TRIAL ENDS SUDDENLY.

Judge Willis and a jury heard the case against Margie Virginia Grant, a comely little woman, who was charged with securing money under false pretenses from Ella Richey, in the sale of the lease and furnishings of the property known as No. 141 Wilshire, whereby the plaintiff was separated from $1600, when it was alleged that the defendant was not the owner of the five-year lease of the house, and had no right to dispose of the same. At the close of the evidence for the prosecution, the testimony of Deputy District Attorney Ford, the action was dismissed.

The plaintiff told her story of the transaction on the stand. She said the Grants (the defendant and her husband, John Grant) had told her they had spent $2000 in furnishing the house, but that the stuff was so expensive that they had found difficulty in doing so. At the close of the evidence for the defense, the testimony of Rev. A. C. Smithers, the owner of the place, and it was alleged that Mrs. Grant informed the purchaser that she would consent to the transfer of a lease, and Smithers testified that Mrs. Grant was justified in making the representations she did in regard to the lease.

VERDICT SET ASIDE.

POMONA CASE ON APPEAL.

Judge Willis yesterday set aside the verdict found in the court of the Recorder of Pomona against Pierre Lamoignon, a Frenchman, who was charged with a winery ordinance, on appeal. It was alleged that on December 21, last, the defendant illegally sold wine, and on March 2, when a trial was had before a jury, was found guilty, and the Recorder sentenced Lamoignon to pay a fine of $300, and in default thereof be imprisoned in the City Jail for ten days until the fine be satisfied in proportion to one day for every $2 of the fine.

on the ground that the venire should have been served and returned by the City Marshal of Pomona, and that there was no authority for the appointment of a jury in the case.

The panel was denied. Defendant excepted, and the appeal was taken on this objection.

Judge Willis said that when jurors are required in any inferior court they shall be summoned by the Sheriff, constable, marshal or policeman of the jurisdiction, and no attention had been called to any section of the law authorizing the appointment of an assessor by a court of inferior jurisdiction. In law, an assessor is one who performs certain duties pertaining to certain officers, when the latter are disqualified.

The court has no power to appoint an assessor unless it appears that both the Sheriff and the Coroner are disqualified, and such appointment, by showing the disqualification of the Sheriff without showing that the Coroner was disqualified or unable to act, is erroneous. It is error by a court of inferior jurisdiction to appoint an assessor without a showing of the disqualification of the Sheriff and the Coroner.

The point was also made that the evidence was insufficient to sustain the verdict of the jury, but the opinion of the court in regard to the matter was not to be passed upon, but it seems, said Judge Willis, that a conviction was had upon the uncontroverted testimony of the plaintiff witness, testimony that was so conclusively denied that, were there any other evidence, it would be of no avail. The court should be inclined to grant the defendant a new trial on this ground. A new trial of the case was ordered by the court.

SETTLED OUT OF COURT.

SENSATIONAL HOLMAN CASE.

The divorce action brought by Anna E. Holman against Guy W. Holman was settled out of court yesterday, by the statement of the attorney for the plaintiff the action was stricken from the calendar. It was alleged that Mrs. Holman had left Long Beach and was now living in Northern California.

The allegations of Mrs. Holman's petition were quite sensational. She asserted that her husband had collected and misappropriated funds belonging to her, amounting to $2500, and that he had been guilty of various acts of cruelty. The wife is the owner of the property at No. 132 West Linden avenue, Long Beach. In addition to the property at No. 132 West Linden avenue, this city, and on the ground of it it was charged the husband had collected the rents, making no account of the funds. She also alleged that she had in a safety deposit box in the Commercial National Bank of Los Angeles, a jewelry valued at $2500. She also asserted that Holman had written to her brother, O. S. Herzhorn, of Pittsburgh, Pa., that she was crazy.

Holman filed an answer in which he denied that he had failed to account for money received from his properties, but admitted that he had told her physician that in his opinion his wife was a victim of the delirium and whisky habit; that it was not true he had circulated such reports about her promiscuously, but that they were true in that it was necessary for her to go to a sanatorium in order to receive treatment. He further alleged that the acts of violence on his part were made necessary by her attacking him when under the influence of drugs.

The troubles of the Holmans have been in court one way and another several times, but the action has now been withdrawn. They were married at Anaheim in April, 1907.

BANK STOCK INVOLVED.

OLD JUDGMENT SOUGHT.

A suit for the recovery of the supposed value of 270 1/4 shares of the capital stock of the Pacific Savings Bank, amounting to $3000, was filed in the Superior Court yesterday. The plaintiff is Sophie B. Weldon, executrix of the last will and testament of T. J. Weldon. It seems from electric works plant, $40,000; franchise to be a corporation, $5000; franchise to use the public highways of the city of Los Angeles for the introduction into and supplying the city and its inhabitants gas light and other illuminating light, $20,000.

1895, $11,000; electric underground system, $10,000; gas works plant, $80,000;

The prayer of the petition is that the assessment and tax upon the property of the plaintiff be set aside in toto, and if not in toto, as to any amount in excess of the valuation of $200,000, and a tax of $2234; that the assessment of the gas pipes, meters and regulators be fixed at a valuation of $600,000, and a tax of $14,234.35; gas works plant, valuation, $40,000; assessed, and a tax of $800.00; electric light plant, valuation, $20,000, and a tax of $200.00; that the tax upon the franchise to be a corporation be set aside and declared null and void; that the assessment upon the overhead distributing system be fixed at $117,000, and a tax of $1719.50; electric overhead distributing system (annex 1896), with a valuation of $42,000, and a tax of $840.00; that the plaintiff recover from the defendant a total of $23,854.80, and a tax of $442.39, and a tax of $1062.33; and that the plaintiff recover from the defendant a total of $23,854.80, and a tax of $442.39, and a tax of $1062.33, and paid under protest by the defendant company.

The court has no power to appoint an assessor unless it appears that both the Sheriff and the Coroner are disqualified, and such appointment, by showing the disqualification of the Sheriff without showing that the Coroner was disqualified or unable to act, is erroneous. It is error by a court of inferior jurisdiction to appoint an assessor without a showing of the disqualification of the Sheriff and the Coroner.

The point was also made that the evidence was insufficient to sustain the verdict of the jury, but the opinion of the court in regard to the matter was not to be passed upon, but it seems, said Judge Willis, that a conviction was had upon the uncontroverted testimony of the plaintiff witness, testimony that was so conclusively denied that, were there any other evidence, it would be of no avail. The court should be inclined to grant the defendant a new trial on this ground. A new trial of the case was ordered by the court.

TURN OVER FEE.

UNUSUAL COURT CASE.

The divorce suit brought by Myrtle H. Sherman against George C. Sherman, on the ground that the defendant had failed to support her, ended in Judge Willis's court yesterday, by the denial by the court of the relief sought. The defendant, however, was ordered to pay the plaintiff $100 as an attorney fee.

Attorney Grant Jackson appeared for Mrs. Sherman, and with the decision of Judge Willis, he rose and addressed the court, said that the fee, if paid by the husband, would be credited to him to the support of the plaintiff in the case; that he had no desire for any fee for his services, but would be glad to turn over the money to Mrs. Sherman, whom he knew as a poor and deserving woman.

Much interest was added to the hearing by the fact that Jackson and the Shermans were fellow-students in the public school at Santa Barbara, and that the plaintiff was a daughter of the defendant's father.

The defendant was added to the hearing by the fact that Jackson and the Shermans were fellow-students in the public school at Santa Barbara, and that the plaintiff was a daughter of the defendant's father.

SUIT TO RECOVER.

ALLEGED ILLEGAL TAXES PAID.

The Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company brought suit against the city of Los Angeles in the Superior Court yesterday to recover $23,854.80, and as taxes on the franchise and personal property of the corporation.

The assessment made by the County Assessor last year on the property was as follows: Gas pipes, meters and regulators, $120,000; electric overhead distributing system (annex 1896), $40,000; electric works plant, $80,000; franchise to be a corporation, $5000; franchise to use the public highways of the city of Los Angeles for the introduction into and supplying the city and its inhabitants gas light and other illuminating light, $20,000.

the wording of the petition, that T. J. Weldon, in 1891, brought an action against Ralph Rogers and recovered a judgment for $2500. Weldon died in 1894, and by the terms of the will that was afterward probated, the plaintiff was made executor of his estate.

Afterward she filed a petition to enforce the judgment and levied upon the shares of bank stock, that were afterward sold under the execution and bid in by the plaintiff for $500. Demand was then made upon the bank for the delivery of the stock, but this was refused. It is stated that the stock is now worth $2000, and a judgment for that amount is asked against the Pacific Savings Bank.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.
EX PARTE MATTERS. In Judge Dordwells' court yesterday, the request of the Hamilton M. E. Church, for permission to mortgage its premises for $5000, was granted. The petition of the Reed Grade Oil Company, for a dissolution of the corporation, was granted.

DAMAGE ACTION. An action was brought in the Superior Court yesterday by Willard A. Howard, a machinist employed in the city fire department, against the Southern California Edison Company, for $5000 damages. It is alleged that on December 21, last, while the plaintiff was engaged in repairing the water pipes under the floor of engine house No. 7, that he received a powerful shock from the wires of the defendant corporation that had been improperly insulated, and as a result he suffered severe injuries.

CASE OF TAKAWA. M. Takawa, a Japanese, charged with perjury, succeeded in knocking out the information against him by the demurrer route, but Judge Willis allowed the District Attorney to file new information. There are against the wily one, and the defendant will be compelled to face that.

RAIL DENIED. Judge Wilbur yesterday denied bail to Anna Mallory, who is serving a ninety-day jail sentence in the county jail, having been found guilty of keeping a house of ill-fame, by Justice Chambers, May 12. A writ for the release of the woman on a writ of habeas corpus had been filed, and the court was ready to proceed with the hearing, but a request was made for the postponement of the matter until June 8, and this was allowed. An application for the release of the prisoner was made, but the court denied this, saying that it would not be good form to release her under the circumstances. The case was ready so far as the prosecution was concerned, and if there must be delay the accused must remain in jail until the hearing. One of the grounds for the allowance of the writ is the statement that Miss Mallory is suffering from the effects of a severe surgical operation.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday by the Bristol Pier Company, capital stock, $50,000, incorporators, William Schneider, Jacob Fisher, and H. S. Winsor, subscribed $300; The Equitable Loan and Investment Company, capital stock, $25,000, incorporators, O. P. McKeon, S. W. Keller and E. P. Blake, subscribed $300; The Globe Wave Power and Electric Company, capital stock, $150,000, incorporators, Alva L. Reynolds, Florence M. Reynolds, Frank E. Wolfe, subscribed $600; Out West Club, incorporators, A. B. Dodge, George Von Weber, Frank C. Hopkins, Hosea E. Steelman, J. S. Hendrickson, R. M. Yost, Jr., C. L. Geddings, W. H. Oliver, A. P. Richardson, E. A. Brininstool and A. S. Brydon.

ENJOINED. Judge Hervey yesterday granted an injunction against the defendants, in the case of The Hegyi Oil and Chemical Company against the Hegyi, et al., involving the use of a floor oil and sweeping compound, that it was alleged the plaintiffs had purchased of Hegyi.

DISCHARGED. The citation against Eva D. Ames, to show cause why she should not be punished by Judge Hervey for failing to carry out the order of the court in relation to allowing her divorced husband, George E. Ames, to remove from the county, was discharged, it appearing that the divorce action decided against the husband had been appealed to a higher court.

ACTION FOR INJURIES. In Judge Moore's court a jury is hearing the evidence in the action brought by E. A. Dean and Nellie K. Dean, to recover $15,000, alleged to be due on account of injuries sustained by Mrs. Dean, on January 23, last. The complaint alleged that on that day, while the lady was a passenger on the Pacific Electric Railway, on her way from Pasadena to Los Angeles, the car collided with another on the line, and she was thrown violently against a seat, with the result that she was severely injured internally, according to the complaint.

COMMITTED. Judge Bordwell yesterday ordered W. T. Cooper, the policeman who, some days ago, attempted to commit suicide by hanging to the State Hospital at Patton. Other commitments were Rashie Purvis, Julia Guin and Thomas H. Monroe.

IN THE INFERIOR COURTS.
Husband Who Spends Wife's Money for Liquor and Beats Her Fined Thirty Dollars.

Jesus Squires, a Mexican who beat his Welsh wife because she acceded him for some home drunk, was sentenced to pay a fine of $30 or serve 30 days in jail when he was taken before Justice Rose on a charge of assault.

Mrs. Quirós has a number of children, whom she supports by conducting a little restaurant at No. 117 Marchessault street. Her husband made a practice of wasting her hard-earned money by spending it on strong drink.

Pahl May Demand Jury Trial.
Dr. Peter C. H. Pahl, manager of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan, appeared in Justice Williams' court yesterday morning and entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of assault preferred by W. H. Hughes, a Times photographer. He was represented by his attorneys, Davis & Rush, who intimated that they may demand a jury trial when the case is called to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Husband Convicted of Battery.
D. Caldwell, who attacked his wife during an altercation about family affairs, was found guilty of battery in Justice Williams' court yesterday and was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 or serve 10 days in jail. He was placed in jail in default of $250 bail.

SEEKS BALANCE OF FEE.
At one-third interest in the Sunset Square Apartments, Pico street and Grand avenue, figures in a suit which W. C. Gilkey has filed in Justice Stephens' court. He declares that he sold the interest for Nevada Irwin and that she agreed to pay him $250 as broker's fee. He alleges that he received only one-half of that amount and now demands the other $125.

MORE ROOM IN JAIL.

Another Hundred Will Be Accommodated and Juvenile Prisoners Will Have Own Quarters.

Preparations for a reception of a large number of inmates next winter, are being made at the County Jail. The institution has a capacity of 250 prisoners. Quarters for another 100 are being added. There are now two decks of tanks in the large room of the jail and a third is being built. Cells are being put in the emergency tank. Hereafter all of the juvenile prisoners will be separated from the adults. They have been kept in a tank adjoining the others, but will have a separate room when the improvements are completed.

The roster at the jail is now about 120 and the prisoners have more room than they require, but heretofore the prison has been crowded during the winter months and the number is expected to increase with the growth of the county.

PAROLE VIOLATION ALLEGED.

F. M. Mitchell, who was released several months ago from Judge Davis' court on probation, T. S. Gibson, who had known him for several years, having interceded for him, was arrested on a bench warrant yesterday. He is accused of having violated the conditions upon which he was given his liberty.

FAILURE TO PROVIDE CHARGED.

Two failures to provide cases were filed in Justice Ling's court, yesterday. Elmer W. Stratton is charged by his wife with having neglected to properly care for her. William Boltwood is accused of having failed to furnish anything for the support of his minor son, who is in the McKinley Home.

PRISONER GOES TO TEXAS.

Shorty Lindsay of Baxter county, Tex., left yesterday for his home in San Antonio with L. Schneiderman in custody. The prisoner is wanted in the South on a charge of forgery. Schneiderman was arrested at Patterson and brought to the County Jail for safe keeping.

TWO FEDERAL TRUE BILLS.

The Federal grand jury returned two truebills yesterday. The one made public is against Albert Dimminger, now in custody. He is charged with selling liquor to Indians at the Needles.

FACTS, FEATURES AND FINANCIALS FOR WOMEN

BY OLIVE GRAY.

Many have written to ask exactly what the fall and winter styles in hats are to be. We can scarcely more than say that at best reason by inference. For the most part, the fashions are, using the medium of hats, about thirty inches, that is, the hats are in general, using the word "hats" in a general sense. However, fashion is a fickle goddess, and it is never positively known what turn she may take. Half the women who wear hats at the moment are wearing them because they will do next. The fashion changes with the wind; the fool might appropriately be revised. A woman changes her mind; the wise woman says that one of the principal compensations for being a woman is the privilege of changing her mind, even at the last moment. So you see, when we can predict what fashion will do, several things ahead, we shall be obliged to change the pronoun in speaking of her.

Strawberry Recipe.

For putting up strawberries, select a correspondent, who kindly will share her treasures with her readers. Take full ripe berries, wash and over-ripe; add to them their own sugar; place on a slow fire and show the heat at the bottom of the pan. When the sugar is dissolved, add the strawberries, but not cooking. Place the berries on flat dishes, put in the sun to shine through, and when the day, will make the preserves, preserving the syrup sufficiently as to not allow it to remain in the sun. Put in jelly glasses and cover with paraffine.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

The graduating exercises of the Shakespeare class of the Wednesday Morning Club will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Congregational Church on North Daily street. The program will be read by Mrs. Ella Park; greetings by Miss J. O. Chambers, vice-president; and presentation of the class will be made by Mrs. H. E. Brett. "Contrasts in Shakespeare" will be treated by Mrs. Hattie A. Musher and Mrs. Virginia Davis. Presentation of diplomas and class pins will be made by Mrs. J. M. Armstrong. The graduates will be welcomed into the Shakespeare alumnae by Mrs. W. H. Fillmore, president of the alumnae. Mrs. I. O. Bacheider will give "Songs from Shakespeare," and there will be readings from Shakespeare given. The graduates are Mrs. Virginia Davis, Mrs. Hattie A. Musher and Mrs. Nellie Tilley.

Highland Park Ebbell.

A May song recital given by Estelle Heart Dreyfous, with Mrs. Monion Robinson, accompanist, was the program at the Highland Park Ebbell Club yesterday morning. The installation of new officers will be the feature of next Tuesday's meeting.

District Board Meets.

The executive board of the Los Angeles District Federation met yesterday noon at luncheon at the home of Mrs. William Baurhyte, No. 1033 West Edgemoor road. It was the first meeting of the new board, with the new president, Mrs. Baurhyte, and was in the nature of a "get together" meeting, although plans for future work were discussed. The board will meet hereafter the fourth Tuesday of the month. Invitations were read from the Woman's Club of Glendale to attend the "Reciprocity Luncheon," which this club will entertain Tuesday, May 31. Long Beach Ebbell, the Los Angeles Galpin Shakespeare Club, Pasadena Shakespeare Club, Monrovia Saturday Afternoon Club, Sierra Madre Monday Afternoon Club, Alhambra Wednesday Afternoon Club, Covina Afternoon Club, and the Woman's Club of Hollywood and Azusa are invited to send delegates.

AUTO HITS WOMAN.

She Is Knocked Down and Run Over in Broadway, But Driver Is Not Blamed.

Failing to see an automobile which was crossing Broadway at Fourth street, Miss Kate Miller, employed by the S. Friedman ladies' tailoring establishment, No. 424 South Broadway, was knocked down and run over by a heavy touring car shortly after noon yesterday.

The automobile was owned and operated by A. L. Emberson, No. 617 Delta building. He took the injured young woman in his machine and carried her to the Receiving Hospital where it was found that she was only slightly bruised. Emberson is said to have not been responsible for the accident. His car was running slowly and ran into Miss Miller when she hurried across the street and suddenly stepped in front of it.

The injured woman is 23 years of age and lives with her parents at Boston street and Banker Hill avenue.

CHURCH FAIR AT OLD ADOBE.

Holy Family Parish to Take Charge of Casa Verdugo This Afternoon and Evening.

An event unique among church fairs will be held at the Casa Verdugo this afternoon and evening. The ladies of the Holy Family church at Glendale have been given the famous Spanish restaurant for the day and the proceeds will go to the building of a new parish house. The booths will be set up under the big pepper tree and in the ramada and the entire celebration will be held in the open.

A programme of entertainment has been arranged which will include acts and skits by various members of the actors' colony at Loma Park. Spanish dinners will be served and there will be Spanish dancing and Spanish music. The ladies of the church have planned a festa along the lines of the old time celebrations which used to be of frequent occurrence in the palace of the first hacienda established here.

Among the participants in the programme will be Harry Metcalf, Henry Stockbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Girard, Harry Duffield and a number of other Henrys and Harrys. Many of the city friends of the new country parish are planning to attend and the day promises to be one of real festivity.

MANIAC BITES OFFICER.

Insists Upon Taking Shower Bath by Placing Hose in Trousers and Becomes Violent.

Maniacal frenzy caused Frank Kincaid, No. 704 East Twenty-first street, to bite and chew two policemen who were sent to arrest him on a lunacy complaint yesterday. Because of his violent actions early in the day, two sergeants, a wagonman and two patrolmen were called to subdue him. He was forced to battle with him before he was taken to the Receiving Hospital.

He has been living in the home of his mother, his bride-to-be. His sanity was doubted when he insisted on taking a shower bath by placing a hose in his trousers and turning it upward. Later he insisted that garden hose was excellent when twisted like tripe and could also be smoked as a cigar.

When the officers arrived Kincaid asked them for a position with the police department. Patrolman Fletcher told him to come down to the station to talk it over with the "boys." Kincaid promptly punched the officer on the head, then dropped down and chewed his leg. Later he bit Sergeant Ross during a struggle. The officers took the man to the Receiving Hospital where he was strapped to a bed. Besides the injuries sustained by Fletcher and Ross, Sergeant Loomis and Patrolman Henderson were shaken up and battered.

MOTHER'S LETTER FATAL.

Deputy Sheriff Receives Missive from Home Rebuking Him and Pistol Bullet Ends Life.

A mother's letter which contained a stern rebuke to her son for not sending any of his earnings back to his home in Indiana, is believed to have made Joseph Murphy, a deputy sheriff and prominent member of the P.O.E., so despondent that he took his life. His body was found early yesterday morning lying in the Eagle's Hall, No. 114 East Third street, where he held the position of trustee.

The janitor of the building found Murphy's body lying in a pool of blood near by. It was at first believed that he had been murdered, but a letter from his mother was found in his pocket which it is believed might have induced him to end his life. He was known to have enemies and there was no sign of attempted robbery.

Murphy bore an excellent reputation as an efficient deputy sheriff and was widely known as a local politician and a speaker at entertainments given by the P.O.E. The Eagle referred to their interesting brother as "Spud" Murphy.

DROPS ON LIVE WIRE.

Linemen Get Feet Singed, Falls Thirty Feet, But Survives Only Slight Hurts.

A live wire carrying 500 volts singed the feet of R. Kohn of Gardena, who works as a "trouble shooter" for the Home Telephone Company, when he lost his balance while stringing wire at Pico and Alvarado streets yesterday morning. The lineman dropped on the wire feet downward, and fell thirty feet to the ground, landing in a standing position.

He was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital, where it is reported that he is recovering rapidly. It was at first believed that the fall had parried him so severely as to cause a basal fracture of the skull, but it was found that he suffers only from bruises and scratches made by the wires.

SAYS TICKET BURNED.

Woman Seeks to Recover Value of It from Santa Fe in Justice's Court.

An unusual suit was filed by attorney for Mary A. Verberg in Justice Stephens' court, yesterday. She is seeking to recover the value of a round-trip ticket to Chicago over the Santa Fe.

Miss Verberg alleges that she paid $98.40 for the ticket on May 10, 1909. She took it home and carefully put it away in her bedroom. The house burned and the ticket was consumed.

She demanded a return of her money for transportation to the Windy City and alleges that the railway company would not give her either. She also seeks to recover 7 per cent. interest on the money.

MEMORIAL DAY ARRANGEMENTS

Grand Marshal Issues First General Order.

Appropriate Programme for Service Made.

Short Parade Will Be Formed at Central Park.

Arrangements were completed yesterday for the forty-second annual observance of Memorial Day in Los Angeles, under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic, and kindred organizations and auxiliaries. The surviving soldiers of the Union Army during the Civil War are taking an unusually keen interest in the exercises to be held in commemoration of this holiest of holy days with them.

The younger veterans of the Spanish War will officiate as escort to the older heroes of the battlefield, when the short street parade is conducted in the afternoon. In the morning of Memorial Day the old soldiers will follow their custom of strewing flowers upon the graves of their departed comrades. They will be assisted in this sacred service by the members of Bartlett-Logan Woman's Relief Corps, No. 7, Stanton W.R.C., No. 16, and Uncle Sam W.R.C., No. 48, and Union Circle, No. 19, Columbia Circle, No. 34, and Gen. H. W. Lawton Circle, No. 22, Ladies of the G.A.R.

The memorial exercises will be held in the afternoon at Simpson Auditorium, when Rev. Matt S. Hughes, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Pasadena, will be the orator of the day.

The official programme follows:

APPROPRIATE PROGRAMME.

Assembly, Veterans Drum Corps, Comrade C. H. Haseldine, leader; call to order and introduction of president of the day by Grand Marshal A. T. Large; introductory address, Dr. W. A. Bentley, president of the day; bugle call, Comrade O. T. Thomas; invocation, Rev. Will A. Knight; organ selection, Comrade J. M. Loreti; reading, "Lincoln's Gettysburg Address," C. M. Farbanks; song, "Star Spangled Banner," Prof. J. A. Foshay; music, Drum Corps; address, Rev. Matt S. Hughes; organ solo, Comrade J. M. Loreti; "America," by the audience, led by Comrade Loreti.

Comrade A. T. Large of Stanton Post has been chosen grand marshal of the day, and yesterday he issued general orders No. 1, as follows:

"All members of the Grand Army of the Republic and old soldiers, veteran drum corps, Sons of Veterans, Spanish-American War Veterans, police escort and all other societies that are to take part in the memorial services, will assemble at the southwest corner of Central Park, corner Sixth and Olive streets at 1 o'clock, Monday afternoon, May 30, to participate in the parade.

"All ladies of the Relief Corps, the Ladies of the G.A.R., Daughters of Veterans, auxiliaries to the S.A.W.V., and auxiliaries to the Sons of Veterans, will assemble on Hope street south of Sixth street at the same hour.

"The sides to the grand marshal will meet the marshal on foot at the corner of Sixth and Olive streets promptly at 12:45 p.m., in full uniform, with white gloves, red sash around the waist and side arms.

POSITIONS ASSIGNED.

"All organizations will form on their colors at right of line. The drum corps will form in the southeast corner of the park. Stanton Post, G.A.R., will form on the center walk of the park, right resting 100 feet from the southwest corner of the park.

"Bartlett-Logan Post, G.A.R., will form on the south walk of the park, right resting 100 feet from the southwest corner of the park.

"Kennesaw Post, G.A.R., will form on the west walk of the park, right resting 100 feet from the southwest corner of the park.

"Roosevelt Camp, S.A.W.V., will form on the sidewalk at the south end of the park, right resting fifty feet from the southwest corner of the park.

"Admiral Glass Camp, S.A.W.V., will form on the sidewalk at the south end of the park, right resting fifty feet from the southwest corner of the park.

"The Sons of Veterans will form on the sidewalk at the west side of the park, right resting fifty feet from the southwest corner.

"The police will form on the west side of Olive street, right resting on Sixth street.

"An aide-de-camp will be detailed by the marshal to form the ladies' organizations on Hope street.

"The parade will move promptly at 1:30 o'clock in the following order:

"Police escort commanded by Chief Galloway.

"Spanish-American War Veterans, Roosevelt Camp, J. D. Fredericks, commanding; Admiral Glass Camp, T. R. Norman, commanding; Gen. Otis Camp, J. B. Morrison, commanding.

"Veteran Rifle and Drum Corps, S. H. Haseldine, leader.

"Grand Army of the Republic:

"Kennesaw Post No. 106, William S. Hurlbert, commander.

"Stanton Post, No. 55, H. Z. Osborne, commander.

"Bartlett-Logan Post, No. 6, Dr. S. A. Austin, commander.

"Sons of Veterans, Dr. Charles E. Case, commanding.

"The route of parade will be west on Sixth street to Hope; south on Hope to Simpson Auditorium, where the memorial exercises will be held."

BOGUS GREENBACKS.

Ten Counterfeit Bills Passed on Merchants in This City—Crooks in North.

About $100 worth of bogus bills have been passed on local merchants during the past three days. The victims first reported their loss to the police. Later Secret Service Operative Hazen was informed of the presence of two suspicious characters in this city. He made a careful search of the downtown districts and the hotels but the crooks had vanished. It is believed they are on their way to San Francisco. The police and secret service agents of this city have been notified to be on the lookout.

The bills are all of the $10 denomination and are poor imitations. Some are counterfeit notes of the National Bank of Riverside, others of the First National Bank of Orange and the rest of the First National Bank of Yuma. Nearly all the bogus money was passed on clothes.

PEARY HONORED ABROAD.

EDINBURGH, May 24.—Commander Robert E. Peary received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at the University of Edinburgh today. The conferment was made by a distinguished company, which gave the American explorer a cordial welcome.

A. T. Large, grand marshal for Memorial Day.

BURGLAR SAVES SAFE.

One Crook Is Frightened Away from His Loot by Another—Detectives Read Signs.

A burglar, who did not know that he was about to encounter a competitor, saved the contents of a safe in the Arno Electric Laboratory, No. 1610 South Main street, when he entered the place early Tuesday morning and frightened away an expert safe blower who was working at his profession.

The expert, who was drilling the safe, imagined that he had been spotted by a detective when he saw a head poke through the side window and disappear. He promptly made a run for safety. The burglar thought that a watchman was laying for him and he ran away from the neighborhood.

There was no clew to the affair other than that which would have satisfied a Sherlock Holmes. Local detectives have figured out the above theory from the clews left in the place, which were pointed out by Manager Fred W. Jackson.

The heavy iron safe has two sets of holes drilled in it which are so neat and well calculated to eventually open it, that the work is plainly that of an expert. One set of heavy footprints in the rear of the store shows where a man came and tried to open the window before beginning his work on the safe. On the other side there is a line of footprints which shows how another night prowler came to another window, pried it open and then ran away. A fine new steel chisel and drill left in front of the partially drilled safe shows that the first burglar received a sudden scare when the side window was opened and he left his tools in his flight.

INDORSEMENT REFUSED.

"Praying" for Cash Does Not Appeal to Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association.

After avowing their implicit trust that God will provide for the John and Josephine Kluge, proprietors of "Comfort Spanish Mission," naively state that any rentals for rooms and other donations will be applied to their support.

The two applied to the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association yesterday for an indorsement. It was refused. Secretary Zeehandelaar said that the most practical speaking persons are Catholics and that church is always known to care for its communicants. The Kluges have rented a house on St. James street which they say they will fit up as a mission. After recounting the many alleged blessings they will be able to bestow upon needy Mexicans, they plausibly add:

"For our own living we trust God. We are not beggars. On the other hand it is said, 'The Lord hath ordained that they who preach the gospel shall live of the gospel.' And hitherto He hath cared for us. We might add that any rentals in Comfort Home we shall apply towards our own support; also any donations that may be handed us."

PRISONER ROBS PRISONER.

City Jail Trustee Takes Two Hundred Dollars from Man and Divides With Another.

Two trustees in the City Jail confessed yesterday that they robbed J. Z. Wilson, who operates steam shovel No. 5 at Cantil, Cal., on the aqueduct on the night of May 19. They took more than $200 from him, divided it and hid it inside the jail.

Wilson was arrested when found in an apparently drunken condition. He was acting in a peculiar manner and insisted that he was drugged so he was taken to the Receiving Hospital and searched before receiving medical attention. There the officers found $200 in his clothes and overlooked $200 in gold which he had hidden in a sack in his shoe.

L. M. Guinn, a trusty doing a long term sentence, entered Wilson's cell, searched him and took the money out of his shoe while Wilson was in a semi-conscious condition. Later Guinn divided with Joseph Birch, who is serving a long term and is in charge of the upper "tanks" in the jail.

Wilson complained to Capt. Dixon and to several men in the jail when released on the morning of May 20. A negro said he saw Guinn working over Wilson when he was in the same cell. Jailor Shand, Deputy Dist. Atty. Veitch, and Capt. Dixon, sweated Guinn until he confessed. The money was recovered.

Complaints were filed charging the prisoners with grand larceny and they were held under $1500 bail.

LOSES LIFE FOR FAMILY.

HUNTINGTON (Ark.) May 24.—Dipping to win a purse of $4, which to buy groceries for his hungry wife and five small children, J. L. Osborne, a miner here, today agreed to leap from a fifty-foot bridge into Cherokee Creek and then swim 150 yards. Osborne made the leap, and thereby lost the money and his life. He landed safely in the water, but when near his goal his body was caught in a whirlpool and he was drowned. Osborne's widow got the purse.

Does Not Like Move of Aqueduct Food Contractor and Flashes Weapon and Later Refuses to Be Arrested by Desmond When He Unveils His Star of a "Special."

The subject of bids on produce to be used in feeding laborers on the Los Angeles aqueduct got Morris Zuckerman, manager of the Weyl-Zuckerman Company, into an altercation yesterday with D. J. Desmond, who holds the boarding contract, and ended in Justice Rose's court, where Zuckerman was taken on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. He pleaded guilty and was fined $20, but he says he believes that he had that much enjoyment. During the row Desmond seems to have put his hand on his pocket in a manner which worried Zuckerman, who has had experience with gun men in Oklahoma. Fearing that he might be perforated by the old "pocket shot" trick, the produce merchant was bland and smiling for an instant, yawned and then suddenly flashed an automatic pistol under Desmond's nose. The latter threw up his hands and yelled, "don't shoot." Then he went away from the place on the first street car.

A few minutes later the aqueduct feeding man remembered he is a deputy sheriff, so he got off the car, went back and found Zuckerman on the street corner. "You are under arrest for carrying concealed weapons," attempted murder, exhibiting a deadly weapon not in self defense, resisting an officer, disturbing the peace, conduct calculated to create a riot, lewd and vicious behavior and all that sort of thing," is what Desmond is asserted to have told his foe. Then he added, "I am sorry, but I will now have to take you to jail."

You will now have to make yourself recede from this neighborhood in the shortest possible time," is what Zuckerman said to the special officer, as he at the same time covered that dignity with the annoying weapon. Desmond left and obtained a complaint from Deputy Attorney Veitch. Other suits are likely to grow out of the encounter.

DEATH REVEALS MASQUERADE.

Woman Posed as a Man and Held Her Own at Labor, Drinking and Cursing.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
ST. LOUIS, May 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The death of "Louis" Rogers under a freight train, revealed a masquerade wherein a woman posed as a man, drinking and cursing in saloons with the workmen and crew of the steamer Sallie, after it was wrecked, and holding her own at hard labor. The death occurred last night and an undertaker discovered the sex. The body was found beside the iron mountain near Kimmswick, Mo., in Jefferson county. The skull was crushed. In the mouth was a "chew" of tobacco and in her pocket was a whiskey flask.

Deputy Sheriff Taubee thinks the woman was trying to beat her way on a freight train and fell under the wheels.

They Look
Appetizing
And taste even better than they look—

Snider Pork & Beans

Their very appearance—all white but mostly pinkish, fairly makes the "mouth water."

Food should cause a flow of the digestive juices at sight, and a plate of steaming Snider Pork & Beans not only looks inviting, but the Tomato Sauce cooked through and through every bean imparts a delicious flavor found only in Snider's.

The irritative, gas-forming element is removed by the exclusive "Snider-Process." All their rich body-making, strength-giving food value (beans are 84 per cent. nutriment) can be enjoyed by anyone.

"It's the Process"

Only whole, plump Michigan beans (the poor ones are picked out by hand) and choicest government inspected young pork, are used.

These facts will be clear after a trial—and there's no risk because it's money back from Grocer if you are not pleased.

Snider Catsup and Snider Chili Sauce are more delicious than any other relishes made, and are absolutely pure—no artificial coloring or chemical preservatives—just sound, ripe tomatoes and pure spices, prepared in spotless, sunlit, kitchens. They more than comply with the strict Pure Food Laws of the World.

"The Mark of Guaranteed Quality."

Does Not View Body of Lifeless Girl—Complaint Charging Murder Is Issued and Man Is Taken to the County Jail—School Problem Worries Principals.

SANTA MONICA, May 24.—Beyond shedding a few tears, after having been informed that his bride of four weeks was dead as the result of a pistol shot which he is charged with having fired, George Figueroa today manifested the same stolid indifference that characterized his actions yesterday. He entered no objection this morning when informed by the police officers that his presence would be required at the investigation to be made by the Coroner.

The principal witness was Mrs. Elsie Samman, aunt of Figueroa, at the time of the shooting. She testified that she heard the couple quarreling and saw Figueroa strike his wife. It was then that she saw the man pick up the revolver, which was where he was at that time in their own rooms. The door was held shut from the inside, and she saw the man take the revolver was attempting to gain entrance. She saw the man take the revolver following the explosion. After the shooting, while Figueroa still at the door, she saw the man close the door on her entrance. Mrs. Samman saw the girl lying on the floor with her arms outstretched. She saw the man pick up a pistol in the room Mrs. Samman did not see the man take the girl's jewelry. She accepted the theory that the woman was shot while lying on the floor, after which she saw the man pick up the body by Figueroa. This theory is borne out by the finding of the bullet on the floor.

man was lying. It had passed through her head almost from temple to temple.

Jack Surber was another witness. He testified that he and Figueroa had been drinking during the afternoon and evening, each having taken about a dozen drinks of beer at beach resorts.

He left the Samman premises before the shooting occurred.

The Coroner's jury returned this verdict: "We, the jury called to inquire into the cause of the death of Sarah Figueroa, find that she came to her death by a gunshot wound of the head, inflicted by an individual, and the evidence points to one George Figueroa as the guilty party and we recom-

and then alone John Surber be held as a material witness." The murder was issued out of the Police Court and the accused was committed to the County Jail without bail. Pending the preliminary hearing the accused was held in the County Jail on $1000 bail. The date of the examination is to be held by the District Attorney.

SCHOOL PROBLEM

The annual school census just completed, having shown an alarming number of children of school age who are gainfully employed, the faculty of the public schools are endeavoring to determine what this condition had to do with the number of truants. The investigation has revealed the fact that the child compulsion law is being vigorously enforced, the main trouble is found to be with the non-attendance of the child. It is therefore there seems to be no other responsible for its proper carrying out. The child is usually tardy, was reprimanded and encouraged to be on time. The next

The school, armed with a parental excuse for his delinquency. The excuse was that he had to go to school at 2:30 p.m. and home at 3:30 p.m. and that he had to be at school at 9 o'clock. The boy must have a reasonable amount of sleep, the school argued.

The boy was subjected to a rigid physical examination, during which it was ascertained that he was 12 years of age. He was then placed in a class and set in setting up ten pins at a bowling alley. He said he had worked until 11 p.m. and then he had to go to school. He was then questioned, while on the previous date he had worked until 11 p.m. and then he had to go to school. He was then questioned, while on the previous date he had worked until 11 p.m. and then he had to go to school. shall be employed or permitted to work for gain between the hours of 10 o'clock in the evening and 6 o'clock in the morning. The same law provides that no person or agent that violates or promises to comply with any of the provisions of the act referred to, or commits or attempts to commit a misdemeanor shall be employed in violation of the law, or be employed as a miscreant and may be imprisoned or imprisoned for each offense.

After the shooting, while Figueroa still attempted to hold the door closed against her entrance, Mrs. Samman saw the girl lying on the floor with her arms across her breast. If there was a third party in the room Mrs. Samman did not know it. The Coroner's jury accepted the theory that the woman was shot while lying on the floor, after having been knocked or pushed down by Figueroa. This theory is borne out by the opening of the outlet on the floor near the door, where the murdered woman was lying. It had passed through her head almost from temple to temple.

The annual school census, just completed, having shown an alarming number of children of school age who are gainfully employed, the faculty of the school board has decided to make a study of the problem. One of those determining what this condition had to do with the number of children who are employed. This investigation has revealed the fact that while the compulsory school law is being vigorously enforced, the main cause of the children's employment is the enforcement of the child labor law. There seems to be no officer responsible for the enforcement of the law. One boy of twelve years, who is frequently tardy, was reprimanded and encouraged to be on time. The next day he was absent and his mother

The school armed with a parental excuse for his delinquency. The excuse read as follows: "Owing to having to work so late at night—sometimes until 2 of 2:30 a.m.—we cannot get him to school always by 9 o'clock. He must have a reasonable amount of sleep after working so hard."

The boy was subjected to a rigid cross-examination, during which it was developed that he was employed on the beach in setting up ten pins at a bowling alley. He said he had worked until 2 o'clock in the morning of the day on which he was questioned, while on the previous date he had worked until

3:30 a.m. The boy said this was the quitting time generally on busy nights. While at other times he would get home by midnight. He had been thus employed for months, beginning work at 3.30 p.m. in company with two or three other boys of his own age, and received $4.50 per week. The same boy said he had a brother of 15, who also works in a bowling alley until about 6 a.m. and attends no school.

Those who are in charge of the public schools are inclined to make an ap-to the mothers' clubs and the women's organizations to come to their aid in enforcing the observance of the law, which provides emphatically that no minor under the age of 14 shall be employed or permitted to work for gain between the hours of 10 o'clock in the evening and 6 o'clock in the morning. The same law provides that any person or agent that violates or permits to comply with any of the provisions of the act referred to, or employs, or suffers or permits any minor to be employed in violation of the law, is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be fined or imprisoned for each offense.

Established 50 Years.

I am the only Specialist in Los Angeles who is sole owner of his office and equipment, who does not advertise a fictitious name and photograph. I publish my true photograph, correct name, personally conduct my office. I am the longest established.

Dr. Fritella, specialist of the inner ear, with his training and treatment, has been able to cure a considerable number of cases of incurable deafness. He consults, investigation should be made of the cause of the ailment and then he counsels. Duty and desire to aid and help the dependents of the afflicted are the best method of attention. "I have the ability to cure deafness," he says, "and I have always charged a very reasonable fee, no matter how long it takes to cure the man who sincerely desires to be cured. I have cured many incurable cases of deafness, but I have never made a fortune. I make sensible propositions; neither do I desire to be particularly rich. I am satisfied if I can help you for a patient. If you will come to me on a strictly private basis, I will be glad to cure you."

or through unuseful treatment have become skeptical and think there is no cure for their ailment. I want to tell you that I can cure you. I can treat such men. It makes no difference whether you are a man or a woman. I have cured thousands of men and women for my services as benefits are derived when I am satisfied the patient is relieved of his or her ailment. I can improve my ability to cure you before asking pay for my services.

DECLARE COLE IS DETRIMENT.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEEMAN TO BE GIVEN BOOT.

Executive Body of State Organization Takes Step to Institute Ouster Proceedings Against Scalp of Theodore Bell, and Will Say, Has Not a Clean Political Life.

The political enemies of Nathan Cole, Jr., who recently created something of a sensation by filing a petition in bankruptcy in San Francisco, have finally begun proceedings to oust him from his position as the California member of the Democratic National Committee, an action that they had long threatened to institute. The preliminary steps in this direction were taken Monday at a secret meeting of the Executive Committee of the Democratic State Committee, held in the northern city.

Charges that Cole's presence on the National Committee is detrimental to the best interests of the party in this State will be filed with Norman E. Mack, chairman of that body. This decision was reached at the conference which was dominated by Theodore Bell, who has sworn to get Cole's political scalp. Bell's only desire is to have days before the last national convention at which Bryan was nominated for the Presidency. Bell favored Joseph Layman of Oakland, for the National Committee, but the Los Angeles man would not.

Assisted by certain representatives of the Democratic League of this city, the fight against Cole has been continued without abatement. Bell and his friends decided that Cole should not be asked to tender his resignation. This request, it is said, was made by Judge John E. Baker, of Modoc county, chairman of the Democratic State Committee. Attorney Frank H. Gould of San Francisco, who is Cole's legal adviser, would not permit his client to entertain such a step had he been so inclined. It is asserted by his enemies that Cole was agreeable to resigning, but this he denies.

When it was found that Cole would stand pat, Bell and his committee decided to file charges direct with Mack. The burden of the complaint will be that Cole failed in his duty as National Committeeman to make anything like a real fight to capture this State for Bryan; that his political life has not been as immaculate as Theodore Bell and his mollified demand. That the State Committee would take up this fight had long been doubted by well-informed Democratic politicians. There is said to be two sides to Cole's attitude in the national campaign, one of which it is asserted, does not reflect any more credit on him than his aspirations can possibly reflect on Cole. He is the one man who scolded Theodore Bell and the latter has never forgotten his humiliation. Cole's friends assert that when the National Committee gets through, Bell will wish he had remained in Napa.

Chairman Mack stated recently in a letter, that there is no provision for filing vacancies in the body, but that he is ready to receive anything from charges to money, and submit same to the committee.

"EMPIRE DAY" OBSERVED.

Local Caledonians Give Grand Concert and Present Police Chief With Gold Star.

"Empire Day," the anniversary of the birthday of the late Queen Victoria of Great Britain, was observed with a grand concert and dance last evening at Blanchard Hall under the auspices of the Caledonian Club, the local Scottish organization. There were touches of "Bonnie Scotland" throughout the hall, the land of the thistle floating its colors amid waving emblems of the United States. And even on the program the thistle was presented, with the significant inscription: "Ye Maun' Trump on the Scotch Thistle, Leadie." And nobody did.

Mayor Alexander and Chief of Police Galloway, were in attendance, and the latter was presented with a handsome gold police star by the members of the club. The presentation address was made by Norman McDonald, the Caledonian chief, and Galloway was surprised. He made an address that pleased his hearers. He took occasion to say that the Scotchman always makes a good citizen, no matter where he may hang up his cap, and that he usually manages to get a fair share of the material goods of the world as he goes through life. For the benefit of the Englishman present, he added that most of the public offices in London are filled with Scotchmen.

There were many attractive musical numbers, the vocal selections being by Mrs. James Tait, Miss Rowena Smith, T. S. Melville, Victor Young, James Anderson and R. J. Pritchard. In addition to an address by President McDonald, there were one by Rev. Drummond McCann. There was a piano duet by Miss Jones and Miss Bailey; reading by Mrs. James Garth; piano selection by James Deas; Scotch reel by Misses Bonnie Carson and May Taylor, and Masters Rennie Wilson and Stratton Young, selections by a quartette consisting of L. J. Williams, E. Anderson, H. C. Blaney and O. T. Leeper; sword dance by Masters Young and Wilson. Selections on the bagpipes by the Caledonians was a feature of the entertainment.

SEEING THE WEST.

German Manufacturers Come to Los Angeles on Pleasure Trip from Old Country.

Five of the foremost chemical manufacturers of Germany are in Los Angeles today under the personal guidance of Jacob Haaslach, president of the Roessler & Haaslach Chemical Company, of New York, one of the largest manufacturing concerns of its kind in America. The entire party is at the Van Nuys, having arrived there yesterday afternoon from the Grand Canyon, Arizona.

According to Dr. August Bantlin of Munchen the present trip is one of pleasure entirely. "Like many other people of Europe, we have heard great tales of America, and we are here to see for ourselves. So far, we have not been at all disappointed in our estimates. Three of our party have been in America a number of times, but they have never been as for west as Los Angeles."

Having heard so much of this city, the visitors had scarcely time to register, and then get out in a large automobile for a ride around the business and residence sections. In addition to Dr. Bantlin and Mr. Haaslach the members of the party are Dr. E. Kunslein of Berlin, Director Schneider of Frankfurt, Dr. Julius Buch of Dessau, and Dr. W. Krueger of Altau. They will remain here for three days and then will go on to San Francisco.
